Anderson, Melba T., 77, of Miami, died May 29. Service 11:00am Fri. 6/11. 305-446-1173

ANGLETON, Sr., JAMES, Beloved husband, honored father, and "Pops." He served in the air force during the Korean War and was also a part of a governmental intelligence agency for over 20 years. A tireless community leader, Jim served on Miami's Revenue Sharing Board, was a Board of Director of International Bank, and founder and president of the Biscayne Boulevard Chamber of Commerce. He served on the Board of Directors of the Greater Miami Opera Guild and oversaw the restoration of the Opera guild building. Jim's love of community led him to serve on the board of the City of Miami Beautification Committee and to be a member of the City of Miami Police Department Crisis Prevention Team. His devotion to the Greek Orthodox Church was seen through his years of service. He was the national Chairman of the St. Photios Shrine in St. Augustine, raising millions for this house of worship, built in 1692. Jim was the recipient of the Cross of St. Andrew and was an Archon, the highest honor bestowed upon a layperson in the Greek Orthodox faith. Visitation at St. Sophia Greek Orthodox Cathedral 2401 SW 3 Ave Miami, on Thursday, June 10th, 7-9pm. Trisagion service at 8pm. Funeral service on Friday, June 11th at St. Sophia Greek Orthodox Cathedral at 10am. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to the James Angleton Sr. Memorial Fund, Total Bank 12411 Biscayne Blvd. North Miami 33181 c/o Mary Toledo.
